

TUFTS DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN AWARD

BACKGROUND:

The Tufts Distinguished Citizen Award was first presented in 1980 by the New Hampshire Recreation and Park Society. This award is designed to recognize a volunteer citizen (non professional) whose voluntary efforts over a period of years have improved the quality of leisure opportunities. These efforts could be beneficial at their town, city, community or state level.

This award is named for Arthur and his late wife, Jean Tufts. It was through their many efforts as volunteers that recreation prospered in the State of New Hampshire. These efforts were as diverse as the introduction and promotion of folk dance and legislation to create a state office and therapeutic recreation specialist position. Their achievements were significant in insuring community recreation and therapeutic services for the State of New Hampshire.
